

heart in chains

there's a new game in town who shall have a heart today let's make a list
and for a day rule over life or death

oh i can't play ur game it's a little too real for me i have been to the bazar
where hearts
are handed out
let's instead have
some simple fun
go to the room
of love in the air

but see! there!
the pranksters are at play
they have a girl in chains is it alice or not?

we are close for a moment ur head rests on my shoulder remind me not to forget its only a song
& the girl has the power to break the chains
